

Air Quality Index LaPorte County has a significantly greater number of good air quality days compared to Porter and Lake County.

Perceptions of Air Quality Northwest Indiana residents are less likely to give their community favorable ratings for air quality compared to national benchmarks.

Secondary Smoke

Northwest Indiana adults and children are more often exposed to secondary smoke in the home compared to national findings.

% Children Exposed to Smoke at Home	26.9	18.3	10
-------------------------------------	------	------	----

% Someone Smokes at Home	25.6	18.8
--------------------------	------	------	--